Now that you are aware of the Kolkata Police Constable Prelims Exam Date and the significance of your admit card, it is essential to understand the Kolkata Police Constable Prelims Exam Pattern. Want a brief overview? Knowing the exam pattern is crucial as it allows you to tailor your preparation, giving you a competitive advantage. The Kolkata Police Constable position will be filled through several stages.

First, you'll need to clear the Preliminary Written Test, which serves as a screening exam. This test comprises 100 multiple-choice questions covering General Awareness, Mathematics, and Reasoning, with negative marking for wrong answers.

Prelims Subjects	Marks
General Awareness and General Knowledge	40
Elementary Mathematics (Madhyamik standard)	30
Reasoning	30

If you qualify, your physical attributes (height, weight, chest for males) will be assessed in the Physical Measurement Test (PMT). After passing the PMT, you'll undertake the Physical Efficiency Test (PET), which involves a timed run with different criteria for males, females, and third gender, along with relaxed standards for ex-servicemen over 35. After clearing these stages, you'll proceed to the Final Written Examination, followed by an Interview conducted by the West Bengal Police Recruitment Board. Each stage demands thorough preparation to succeed.

Final Subjects	Marks
General Awareness and General Knowledge	25
English	10
Elementary Mathematics (Madhyamik standard)	25
Reasoning and Logical Analysis	25
