KP Constable Topper List - Selection Process

The West Bengal Police Recruitment Board (WBPRB) is going to conduct the KP Constable Recruitment for 3734 constable and lady constable positions. The selection process involves five stages to identify eligible candidates:

1. Written Examination:

- Screening exam with 100 multiple-choice questions.
- 1 mark for correct answers and a deduction of 1/4th mark for incorrect ones.
- Marks from this exam don't count towards the final merit list.

2. Physical Measurement Test (PMT):

- Assesses candidates based on physical standards like height, weight, and chest measurements (for males).

3. Physical Efficiency Test (PET):

- Candidates qualifying in PMT move to PET, which includes a running event.

4. Final Written Exam:

- Candidates passing PMT and PET take the Final Written Examination by WBPRB.
- The board sets qualifying marks.
- The exam has 85 multiple-choice questions with 1 mark for correct answers and a 1/4th mark deduction for incorrect ones.

5. Interview:

- This is the last stage of the KP Constable Selection Process.
- A merit list is prepared based on Final Written Examination and Interview marks.
- Candidates' proficiency in speaking Bengali is also assessed during the interview.
