The examination will take place in three successive stages:

- Preliminary Examination
- Final Examination
- Personality Test

Now, let's dive deeper into the WBCS Selection Process 2025 and explore each stage in detail!

WBCS Selection Process 2025 - Preliminary Examination

- The Preliminary Examination features a single paper centered on General Studies.
- It includes 200 multiple-choice questions, designed in an objective format.
- The paper carries a total of 200 marks and has a duration of 2.5 hours.

WBCS Selection Process 2025 - Final Examination

- The Main Examination consists of six compulsory papers.
- Additionally, candidates applying for Group A and/or B will have to appear for two extra papers (Paper VII and Paper VIII).
- For these additional papers, candidates must select one optional subject from the given list.
- Each paper, whether Compulsory or Optional, carries 200 marks and has a 3-hour duration.
- Among the six compulsory papers, four—General Studies-I, General Studies-II, The Constitution of India & Indian Economy, and Arithmetic & Test of Reasoning—are MCQ-based and answered on OMR sheets.
- The remaining two compulsory papers (Paper I and Paper II) follow a conventional descriptive format and require written answers.

WBCS Selection Process 2025 - Personality Test

After successfully clearing the Main Examination and securing a position based on merit, you will advance to the Personality Test. This stage involves discussions on a range of general topics to evaluate key personal attributes such as quick thinking, clarity and coherence in expressing ideas, intellectual and moral integrity, leadership skills, and diverse interests.

Now that you have a comprehensive understanding of the WBCS Selection Process 2025, let's guide you through the marking scheme, followed by a look at the eligibility criteria!

WBCS Selection Process 2025 - Marking Scheme

- The Preliminary Examination is worth 200 marks, consisting of 200 objective-type questions.
- Following this, the Main Examination carries a total of 1200 marks, evenly distributed among six compulsory papers, each valued at 200 marks.
- Additionally, the optional subject includes two papers, each carrying 200 marks.
- It is important to note that negative marking is applicable. If a candidate reveals their identity—such as by writing their name, roll number, ticket number, or any identifiable marks on the answer script for a particular paper—10% of the total marks obtained in that paper will be deducted.

WBCS Eligibility Criteria 2025

To apply for the WBCS 2025 Examination, candidates must fulfill specific eligibility criteria set by the West Bengal Public Service Commission (WBPSC). Understanding these requirements is crucial to ensuring a smooth application process.

Nationality

Candidates must be Indian citizens, either by birth or registration. Other nationals may also be considered eligible as per government regulations.

Educational Qualification

A Bachelor's degree from a UGC-recognized university is required for all groups (A, B, C, and D). Additionally, candidates must be proficient in reading, writing, and speaking Bengali, except for those whose mother tongue is Nepali.

Age Limit

The age criteria for different WBCS groups are as follows:

- Group A & C: 21 to 36 years
- Group B: 20 to 36 years
- Group D: 21 to 39 years

Certain categories are eligible for age relaxation:

- OBC (Non-Creamy Layer): 3 years
- SC/ST: 5 years
- Persons with Disabilities (PwD): Up to 45 years
