Written Examination (Maximum Marks - 85)

- Candidates who are eligible for the examination will take an OMR - based Written Examination with multiple-choice questions (MCQs).
- It lasts 1 hour and has 85 questions, each worth 1 mark.
- Wrong answers incur a penalty of 1/4th of the question's marks.
- The exam covers General Awareness and General Knowledge, Reasoning and Logical Analysis, and Arithmetic.
- The marks here decide who goes to the next stage, the Physical Measurement Test (PMT), set by the West Bengal Police Recruitment Board.

PHYSICAL MEASUREMENT TEST (PMT)

- Candidates who are shortlisted based on their Written Exam marks take the PMT to check height, weight, and chest (for males). And if they meet these standards, they will be eligible for the Physical Efficiency Test.

PHYSICAL EFFICIENCY TEST (PET)

- Those who pass the PMT proceed to the PET, which includes physical tasks.
 - Ex-servicemen must show documents for PET relaxation.
 - Third Gender persons need an Identity Certificate for PET.
 - Appearance must match the photo in the Application Form.

Moreover, to understand both PMT and PET better, we would suggest you to read our WB Constable Exam Pattern 2024, and WB Constable 2024 Eligibility Criteria blogs by clicking on the embedded links.

INTERVIEW (Maximum Marks - 15):

- Candidates passing PET face an Interview to assess their suitability for public service, including language skills in Bengali/Nepali.
- The final selection depends on Written Exam and Interview marks. Ties are decided by Written Exam scores and age.
