WBPSC IDO Eligibility Criteria 2025

To apply for the WBPSC IDO 2025 Examination, candidates must meet the eligibility criteria established by the West Bengal Public Service Commission (WBPSC). Understanding these requirements is essential for a smooth application process.

Nationality

- You must be an Indian Citizen to be eligible for this post.
- Additionally, certain other nationals may also be eligible, provided they are officially recognized by the Government of India for recruitment purposes.

Educational Qualification

- You must have a degree from a recognized university or a diploma in Engineering or Technology from a recognized University/Institution.
- You must be able to read, write, and speak in Bengali, as this is a mandatory requirement for the post. However, if your mother tongue is Nepali, this condition does not apply unless stated otherwise for specific posts. Your Bengali proficiency will be tested during the interview.
- Additionally, ensure that all your degrees, diplomas, and certificates are obtained from recognized Universities/Institutions.

Age Limit

- You must not be older than 39 years to be eligible for the exam. This means that as of the specified cut-off date, your age should be 39 years or below.
- However, if you belong to a reserved category such as Scheduled Caste (SC), Scheduled Tribe (ST), or Other Backward Classes (OBC - Non-Creamy Layer), you may be eligible for age relaxation. The extent of relaxation is determined by the Government's orders, which may change from time to time. It's essential to check the latest official notification to understand the exact relaxation applicable to your category.
- Make sure to have valid documents and certificates proving your category status, as these will be required during the application and verification process.
